PEACE FOR S. F.

More than 2000 bay area CIO warehousemen have returned to their jobs, after a prolonged tie-up over the "hot-car" and "single-contract" issues. The Department Store Strike of the A. F. of L. department store employees was said to be nearer settlement than in many weeks.

PALESTINE TERROR

Chaotic terror in Palestine, last stronghold of the wandering and abused Jew, moved U. S. governmental heads last week for more than Czechoslovakia's unhappy fate did three weeks ago. Secretary of State Cordell Hull promised to consult Britain on Palestine's future.

"WINDY CITY"

Chicago, biggest city in the world without a passenger subway, last week, (after years of wrangling among various "interests") was assured of an underground trafficway. A PWA allotment of 18 million dollars has been granted toward the cost of a 7.6 mile subway system which Chicago must start building before January 1.

MOONEY BROKE

Tom Mooney, through his defense committee, expended some $5000 in behalf of the candidacy of Culbert L. Olson for governor, a letter from the prisoner recently revealed. Mooney further stated that the donation had left his defense committee penniless. He seemed sure that Olson would pardon him, if elected, despite the lack of a definite pledge from the politician.

CHINA STILL FIGHTS

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek apparently has no intention of giving up. Chungking, new Chinese capital, announced this week that peace is not wanted and Britain's efforts to mediate between Japan and China will be rejected.

The war goes on. Japanese armies are moving on beyond the Hankow line in Central China and are striking deeper into South China, leaving a garrison of only 2000 in Canton.

Portola Expedition Is Subject Of Mora Diorama For '39 Fair

The largest diorama in the world is now in process of design and construction by Jo Mora, internationally famous artist-sculptor, and his staff at Carmel. The titanic project, ordered by the California State Commission, will grace one of the two auditoriums in the California State Building on Treasure Island in 1939.

Subject for the diorama is the Portola Expedition from San Diego to Monterey Bay and then on to San Francisco Bay, and return in 1769. In the diorama a typical California mountain terrain, with rocks, trees, shrubs, arroyos and trails will be depicted so vividly that spectators will scarcely realize they are man-made.

This terrain will be represented in curved form 100 feet in length and ten feet in depth or width. An expedition of 64 human beings—Spaniards, Indians, friars—accompanied by 204 animals, will be seen stretched out over a tortuous, unknown trail.

A true diorama must accurately represent life. And so each one of these 64 human beings is properly costumed, accoutered; every one of the 204 mules and horses carries the appropriate saddle, harness and trappings.

Jo Mora estimates that his sculpturing will require that each of the 64 men be modeled in 18 pieces to the man and each of the 204 animals in 10 pieces to each animal.

Mora came to California in 1903 for the specific purpose of studying the trails of the Dons and padres, the missions and ranchos. Armed with an authentic copy of Father Crespi's diary, on horseback, Mora followed the trail of the Portola Expedition

Recreation Dept. Has Temporary Office

Despite the handicap of being obliged to vacate headquarters on Wellington avenue by moving temporarily to 6270 Mission street, the Daly City Recreation Department is functioning with due regularity. The former office building has been moved to the corner of Miriam street and Park avenue, closely adjacent to Vista Grande Park, which is scheduled to be one of the best recreation centers in northern California.

City officials have advised the Recreation Department that it is hoped that the office on its new location will be ready within the next two weeks.

Holy Angels Church To Stage Play

Tomorrow evening, Saturday, a three act play will be produced by the dramatic club of Colma Parish in Colombo Hall, Colma, for the benefit of Holy Angels Church. The play is entitled, "Go Easy, Mable." Director is Miss Mary Belli.

After the entertainment a regular church fair will be held. Articles of merchandise and novelties will be sold and auctioned. During the evening an orchestra will play for dancing.

There will be games, amusements and refreshments. The parish extends a cordial invitation to local residents and their guests to attend the festival.

PLAN COLORFUL LOCAL CARNIVAL FOR HALLOWE'EN

All Local Children Will Receive Free Treat

Gayest and most colorful halloween carnival ever to be held in Daly City will be staged here next Monday evening. Every local resident, especially children, and their friends are invited to attend the affair.

Kiddies costume parade is scheduled to start at the county line at 7 p. m. Led by the Daly City band, the procession will march along Mission street to Bepler street and along Bepler street to Mission circle.

Festivities will be carried on by a union orchestra playing for street dancing and entertainment features at intermissions. Dancing kiddies in costume from Miss Rose's local academy will provide special feature performances.

FREE ICE CREAM

Each child will be given a cup of ice cream. Tickets for the ice cream will be distributed through local schools on Monday.

Cleo Miller of the Daly City American Legion Post is general chairman. The city council has appropriated a portion of the cost of the affair. Daly City Chamber of Commerce and other local organizations will assist in financing the carnival. The local WPA Recreation Department under the direction of Supervisor Hull is working with the police and fire departments to arrange a safety patrol for the children during the parade.

Warehousemen Return To Work In San Francisco

Returning to work after a ten week's tieup, some 2000 warehousemen in the San Francisco bay region opened up 137 houses which had been closed during the controversy between the CIO Warehousemen's Union and the Distributors' Association. Nearly 1000 workers indirectly affected by the dispute were back on their jobs. This group included office workers, truck drivers and others who were automatically thrown out of work when the warehouses closed down. Photo shows Pete Stradell, left, and Dominic Musio punching their first time clock in ten weeks.

Special Officer On Pound Detail

The city council in regular session Monday evening assigned a special officer to pound duty in Daly City. This action was taken as a precautionary measure against the possible spread of a rabies outbreak in the south end of the county. All dogs and cats running loose in the streets will be picked up.

A communication from the State Compensation Insurance Fund informed the council that $150 compensation had been paid John Kapor, local fireman, who had been injured while on duty.

Permission was granted Edmund Parrot Chapter 16, Disabled American Veterans of the World War, to sell flags and install sidewalk sockets on Daly City business streets. Councilman Fahey was appointed on a committee to serve with representatives of other county municipalities to make a study of gas tax allocations.

Permission was granted the Chamber of Commerce to announce programs for the post office dedication and new city hall ground breaking ceremonies on water bill stickers November 1.

An ordinance was passed changing the name of San Pedro avenue to San Pedro road.

Set Up Machinery To Control Rabies

Dr. Charles C. Gans, county health director, this week started detail work of setting up machinery for San Mateo County's 90-day rabies quarantine, handicapped by lack of adequate county ordinances covering the unincorporated areas of the county.

It is planned to establish a county pound and to add an experienced dog catcher to the sheriff's staff.

Dr. Gans announced that he would maintain a register of all dogs inoculated for rabies in order to assist in identification of animals impounded.

While precautions were being taken throughout the county, two more persons were bitten, it was reported. One was Archibald W. Banfield, Daly City poundman, who was bitten by a dog on the right forearm last Friday afternoon.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Daniel E. Sullivan said the county had no machinery for combatting the rabies threat.

"We are still in the horse and wagon stage," he declared. "There is no ordinance requiring licensing of dogs in the unincorporated areas."

Sheriff McGrath disclosed that his office had been deluged with telephone calls from persons anxious to co-operate in rounding up stray dogs. But while householders in the unincorporated areas volunteered information on the whereabouts of the strays, the county had no means of picking them up.

The health director planned to post signs throughout the county notifying all persons of the rabies quarantine.

Peninsula Is Mecca For Homes

Nearly half of the present families living on the Peninsula, came from San Francisco originally.

This is one of the interesting facts revealed in a survey just concluded by San Francisco Peninsula, Inc., new community development organization, according to Sam Winklebleck, of Redwood City, chairman of the advertising committee of the organization.

"This confirms our tentative conclusion that San Francisco has been and continues to be the best 'market' for the Peninsula, insofar as prospective new residents is concerned," he pointed out.

Projecting "sample" figures of the survey in terms of total population, it was found that approximately 24,300 Peninsula families have moved "down the Peninsula" from San Francisco.

Why did they choose Peninsula communities for their homes? To discover the answer to this question, representative families were quizzed throughout the major residential areas of San Mateo and upper Santa Clara counties.

"Many different reasons were advanced," said Winklebleck, "but outstanding among them was one factor: Climate. Again applying total population figures to the conclusions, we found that 33.9 per cent of all the families living on the Peninsula originally chose this area for their homes because of its climatic advantages primarily. Closely allied with this reason were considerations of health and child welfare."

"Our advertising committee," concluded Winklebleck, "will make use of the survey, in which many other significant facts were revealed, in planning our proposed advertising campaign during the San Francisco World's Fair."

Taxation Problem More Complicated

San Mateo County's tax mistake problem grew in proportions this week as Grand Jury Foreman Percy J. Shaw disclosed that the tax rate for the entire county was based on erroneous information.

Shaw disclosed that the grand jury auditors who submitted their report to the jury found widespread discrepancies in the actual and reported balances as of July 1.

The figures reported by the controller and used by the supervisors to arrive at a tax rate for 1938-39 differed widely from balances actually on hand, according to Shaw.

"The budget was improperly prepared, because the balances were incorrectly reported," Shaw charged. "The county tax rate is a false rate producing more or less than the amount of money required and not the actual accurate rate on which the tax should be collected."

Set Winter Baseball Games For League

The Peninsula Winter Baseball League, of which the Daly City-San Mateo team is a member, inaugurates its season, starting Sunday. The Daly City-San Mateo team will play ball alternate Sundays at San Mateo on the city park diamond and at Daly City on the Jefferson High School diamond. The game Sunday afternoon, called for 2:30 o'clock, will be played at San Mateo park.

Under the leadership of Pat Sloan, the home team is said to merit local pride. Composed mainly of players from the coast and minor league teams, it is predicted they will win the championship.

Fans from Daly City are urged to attend the game at San Mateo Sunday and to root for the home town players.

Car Dealers Receive Notice of '39 Models To Feature For Show

With Auto Show season 'just around the corner' motor dealers are daily receiving advance notice of new models that will be here in time for display at the San Francisco Civic Auditorium where the great annual Pacific Auto Show will be held November 11 to 19, inclusive.

During the past few days Northern California dealers have previewed many of the new 1939 models at dealer gatherings and are enthusiastic over the sales outlook for the months ahead.

Tod Bates, whose combined duties of Dealer Association manager and co-manager of the show are keeping him busy some sixteen hours a day these hectic weeks took time between the dictation of a wire to Rudy Vallee in New York City and a letter to the Northern California Dealer Association, to give the following reasons for his anticipation of a record breaking crowd at this year's Auto Show.

"First, in Rudy Vallee and his troupe of fifty musicians and entertainers the Dealer Association is offering a major amusement attraction to the people of Northern California, which at a fifty cent admission price should be tops that week in San Francisco entertainment values," said Bates.

"Second, the dealers believe that the people are fundamentally interested in new model motor cars and

ASK SAN MATEO TO GIVE MORE TO COW PALACE

Parr States $825,000 Will Be Required To Finish Job

San Mateo County, already the investor of $50,000 in the gigantic livestock pavilion in Visitation Valley, is to be asked to contribute $25,000 more toward completion of the project.

Fred D. Parr, president of Agricultural District 1-A, sponsor of the "cow palace" project which eventually will involve an outlay of nearly $2,000,000, disclosed this early this week to representatives of the Downtown Association, banks and the chamber of commerce in San Francisco meeting in the pavilion.

The $25,000 would be a small part of the $825,000 necessary to complete the project.

After outlining progress of the project, which is located on a 54-acre tract on the San Francisco-San Mateo County line, Parr disclosed that the proposed financial plan called for $500,000 to be sought from the state at the next session of the legislature; $300,000 from San Francisco, and the $25,000 from San Mateo County.

Parr explained that this sum would be sufficient to sponsor a PWA project which would complete the program contemplated in 1931.

To date $700,000 has been spent to construct the "cow palace," largest building of its kind in the world. Originally it was estimated total cost would be $1,500,000 for the five buildings planned, but Architect W. D. Peugh explained that since 1931 construction costs have increased about 45 per cent.

The necessary water and sewage requirements are to be installed within another month, but 9000 seats are needed to make the building ready for any of the uses to which it may be put.

The four remaining buildings yet in need of financing include a one-story general exhibit building in front of the pavilion; a one-story horse-stall building on each side to accommodate 1000 horses, and a two-story building in the rear to house 2000 head of cattle, sheep and swine.

The central structure, big enough to house a three-ring circus, will have "unlimited possibilities for use," Parr contended. It could be used for horse and cattle shows, boxing matches, ice skating or any number of other purposes, he said.

SM Registration Reaches New Peak

San Mateo County's registration soared to a new peak for the November 8 general election with a total of 55,384 voters eligible to cast ballots, according to figures released this week by County Clerk W. A. Augustus.

The new total was an increase of 2795 over the previous record, 52,589, set for the primaries this year. Two years ago the total was about 48,000 for the general election.

Democrats expanded their lead to 5804 over Republicans, whose sole source of consolation was that they held their own on a percentage basis.

The registration by parties:

Party	Primary	General
Democrat	27,871	29,394
Republican	22,486	23,590
Townesnd	87	126
Commonwealth
Communist	8	7
Progressive	168	164
Prohibition	8	11
Socialist	59	62

Car Dealers Receive Notice of '39 Models To Feature For Show

they believe that this year the motor industry has more attractive models to offer than they have had for the past four or five years.

"While many appointments and refinements have been added, prices on many makes and models have been reduced. Dollar value has increased in the 1939 motor car. The buying public will have at the show the opportunity of seeing and comparing these new cars and their prices and dealers think that a record number of Auto Show shoppers will visit the Civic Auditorium during the Auto Show.

"The third reason that I think the show crowds this year will be greater than last year or for several years past is that there is more optimism in the air. The stock market has shown a steady upward trend not to say a minor boom. This week's statement by Mr. Sloan of General Motors telling of the restoration of salaries to the status before the fifteen per cent reduction in the spring and the re-employment of thousands of factory workers, are decidedly bullish. They are not only restoring a tremendous amount of buying power to a substantial portion of the public but they release a great amount of extra buying power from other employed thousands who have been fearful of their future but who will now be more confident and therefore more willing to make time payments of automobiles, radios, homes and other merchandise.

"In fact, I'm just exceedingly optimistic over the Auto Show outlook."

Fiesta Receipts Show Increase

Although the paid attendance at the 1938 County Fiesta was below the paid attendance of last year, gate receipts this year were much higher, it was revealed early this week by A. H. Sagehorn, Fiesta treasurer.

Total attendance for the five days of the Fiesta was 16,405 persons this year, as compared with 17,966 in 1937 and 14,905 persons in 1936.

Gate and grandstand receipts totaled $13,290.20 for the five days, compared to the cash total of $8097.25 for 1937. In 1936, the receipts totaled $7795.04.

The large increase in receipts this year was credited principally to the rodeo which attracted many thousands to the grandstands during the three days of the performance.

Is it better to overinflate or underinflate automobile tires, is a question often asked. L. G. Evans, General Service Manager of the National Automobile Club, A 11 engineers are emphatic on the point: Overinflation is much to be preferred.

Cato Cites Danger Of Lampless Bikes

Pointing out that 750 school children have been killed or injured, during the first half of 1938, while riding bicycles at night, Chief E. Raymond Cato of the California Highway Patrol this week cautioned all parents and guardians to forbid their children or wards to use their bicycles at night without a head lamp and reflector.

Section 622 of the California Vehicle Code requires a head lamp visible 300 feet to the front and a red reflector attached to the rear of the bicycle visible 200 feet, it was pointed out.

Chief Cato warned that the rising tide of accidents and deaths to school children might result in legislation empowering police officers to impound all bicycles used at night until they are properly equipped.

"We are intent upon saving the lives and bodies of children who use their bicycles at night time. In most cases where children have been injured it was shown that the bicycle did not have a light and reflector and the motorist being able to prove he could not see the bicycle or the rider, nothing could be done about it," Cato stated.

FEATHER RIVER HIGHWAY GOOD

Although early winter storms are closing the higher passes over the Sierra Nevada, the new Eight Million Dollar Feather River Highway will remain open throughout the year, reports the Touring Department of the National Automobile Club.

This scenic route leads through the Feather River Canyon, at practically water-level the entire distance. The highest elevation attained on this route is 2300 feet at Jarbo Pass. This compared to the more than seven thousand foot elevation on most of the other passes, indicates the surety of the route remaining open.

BELLI DISPLAYS NEW CHEVROLET AT SHOW ROOM

Two New Series — Master de Luxe, Master 85 Are On Review

Sleek new aero-stream bodies graphically portraying fleetness and luxury combine with numerous mechanical advancements to assure keen public interest in the new 1939 Chevrolet now making its formal bow at the Belli Motor Company, local agency.

"The two new Chevrolet series, the Master De Luxe and the Master 85 embody not only distinctive style but an even finer aggregate of performance, safety and comfort characteristics than that which made their predecessors sales leaders in 1938. Two new models—a Master De Luxe four passenger coupe with many distinctive features, and a Master 85 business coupe available on both chassis—are added for 1939," stated M. Soldavini, manager of Belli Motor Company.

The major mechanical improvements in the 1939 Chevrolet are the new vacuum gearshift with steering column control and the new perfected knee-action riding system on the Master De Luxe. This improvement includes an entirely new knee-action mechanism, triple-tested, precision-built, and tailored as a unit to the car, to assure maximum riding comfort over all roads.

The new Chevrolet is longer and lower in appearance. This is accomplished by the new design of fenders, wheels, running boards, and hood, as well as by a new window treatment.

The driver's compartment is greatly improved, not only from the standpoint of operating ease but from that of comfort as well. Where advantage is taken of the vacuum gearshift option, the floor is entirely cleared, and three can ride with ease in the front seat. The handbrake lever is removed from its old location at the right of the driver, and placed under the cowl at his left. Instruments are regrouped, with controls virtually at the driver's fingertips.

The vacuum shift, optional on all models at slight extra cost, is presented as a distinct contribution to the cause of safe driving, since it greatly extends the driver's control over his car. Its control handle is mounted on the steering column mast jacket just below the steering wheel. Two features of the new system combine to make "fingertip" control an actuality. In the first place, the control lever is mounted so close to the wheel as to be within fingertip-reach. In the second place, 80 per cent of the operating effort is provided by the vacuum mechanism, so that it becomes an easy matter to shift with the fingertips alone.

A distinct advantage of Chevrolet's new vacuum gearshift mechanism is the fact that it can be operated manually when the engine is not running, should a run down battery or other emergency situation necessitate a "push start."

The new double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers are of the end-to-end discharge type, their compression and rebound cylinders being parallel, one above the other. Their positive action and high, full-stroke efficiency make them a major factor in the new Chevrolet's smooth ride. Another factor is the ride stabilizer, a rubber-insulated steel bar which functions like a torsion bar. If one side of the car tends to rise faster than the other, as when rounding a sharp turn, for instance, the tendency is neutralized by the bar's twisting resistance, minimizing the roll.

Chevrolet's perfected hydraulic brakes, box-girder frame, semi-floating hypoid rear axle, synchromesh transmission, and other established engineering fundamentals are continued without major change.

Native Sons Hold Joint Initiation

On Tuesday evening of this week the officers and members of El Carmelo Parlor No. 256, Native Sons of the Golden West, and Redwood City Parlor held a joint initiation with Half Moon Bay Parlor in Native Sons Hall at Half Moon Bay. A class of eight candidates were initiated.

A barbecued feed of fine beef and beans topped off by home made pumpkin pie followed the ceremonies. After the barbecue there was a big street parade.

About 40 members from Daly City attended the affair.

Chief Conducts Traffic Quiz

Chief E. Raymond Cato of the California Highway Patrol, is conducting a traffic questionnaire in which all citizens are invited to participate. Queries on any highway or traffic problem should be sent to Chief Cato at Sacramento. Answers will be given at an early date.

Following are a few representative questions and answers:

Q—What is the penalty provided for by law when a person has been convicted of driving while intoxicated but no one has been injured as a result of crash? Mrs. S. A. E.

A—Upon first conviction from 30 days to six months in the county jail and a fine from $50 to $500 and upon subsequent conviction, imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year and a fine not to exceed $1,000 or both.

Q—I have often come upon an electric railroad crossing in the outlying districts to find the wig wag signal operating but no cars approaching nearby. How long am I supposed to wait before crossing at such a place and under conditions mentioned? D. M. C.

A—Under such circumstances the law requires that you first bring your vehicle to a complete stop not more than 50 nor less than 10 feet from the nearest railway track and if you can proceed safely, to do so.

Q—What does a green color paint stripe mean on a curb? Mrs. E. J. McD.

A—It means that local authorities have selected the place for limited parking, sometimes for only 10 minutes, for the convenience of the public. The time limit is usually painted on the curb, also.

Q—Must children have lights on their bicycles? E. N.

A—Yes, when ridden at night or other times when it is too dark to see clearly. A white light is required in front and a red reflector or light on the rear of the bicycle.

Q—How high can a load be piled on a truck? G. F. Z.

A—The height limit of a load and vehicle is limited to 13 feet six inches from the ground.

Q—I rented a small truck for one day and became involved in an accident because the brakes were faulty. Am I civilly liable? J. T. L.

A—Under Section 402 of the Vehicle Code the owner is liable for damages regardless of whether the cause was due to faulty equipment or otherwise though you may be made a party defendant.

AWARD PWA GRANT TO HASSLER HOSPITAL

Another huge construction project involving outlay of a half million dollars, was assured for the Redwood City district this week.

Approval by the Public Works Administration of a $1,027,561 grant for a $2,283,470 public hospital improvement program for San Francisco assures construction of eight new buildings at the San Francisco-owned Hassler Health Farm, located just west of Redwood City on Whipple Road.

The new structure, on which work will be started as soon as bonds, approved last November, can be sold and contracts let, will make Hassler Health Farm "one of the greatest institutions of its kind in the world," Dr. J. C. Geiger, San Francisco health director, said.

ATTEND PARADE AT SAN RAFAEL

Mr. and Mrs. James Beardon, Mr. and Mrs. George Romiguere and daughter Joan, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Parmasino and son Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Parmasino and children Geraldine and Albert Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Sam Parmasino and daughter Gloria and Louis Parmasino motored to San Rafael Sunday where they witnessed the Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West parade.

In the evening the group enjoyed dining at a popular San Rafael Cafe.

To Consider Unified Road Plan for SM

Possibility of a unified city-county road system to solve a growing controversy between cities and counties over apportionment of the state gasoline tax was discussed this week by County Engineer U. S. Marshall.

Advised that the city council of Redwood City had inaugurated another campaign to force the county to share its gas tax income, Marshall pointed out that there was nothing new in the proposal.

Several years ago San Mateo County municipalities banded together to make a similar demand, and secured appropriations for road work within the city limits.

"As far as this office is concerned," Marshall said, "we have 515 miles of road to maintain outside of the city limits. It takes all of our present gasoline tax income to keep up these roads.

"If we share the county gas tax with the cities, we must raise additional funds by taxation to make up the difference."

Possibility of a unification of the city street and county road systems under single control as a solution to the gasoline tax problem was "worthy of serious thought," the engineer said.

The Redwood City council recently voted to invite each incorporated city to name one member of a committee to study the feasibility of asking the county for a share of the county gas tax income.

Pay Social Security Benefits To 13,000

The Federal government's old-age insurance program which levies a tax of one per cent on the wages of commercial and industrial workers had provided settlements with almost 13,000 Californians at the end of September and had paid them $516,970.66, according to a report released this week by James B. Cress, San Francisco manager of the social security board.

Widows and dependents of deceased wage earners who had worked at an employment covered by the old-age insurance system previous to their death received a large part of these settlements. An important share also went to persons who recently attained an age of 65 years and who had been employed under the law before reaching that age.

The average settlement in California has increased almost 60 per cent since the first of the year while total disbursements in September, amounting to more than $76,000, were more than twice as large as in January. Settlements were made with 1512 Californians in September.

"As these settlements have grown thousands of workers have come to realize that they have increasing insurance protection for their families in the event of death," Cress said. "This protection increases with each dollar earned at an occupation covered by the law."

The main objective of the old-age insurance system is to provide an assured monthly income to eligible workers at the age of 65. These monthly annuities are scheduled to begin in 1942 although considerable study has been made by the social security board looking toward the beginning of payments at an earlier date.

Eligible claimants will be assisted in filing their claims at the social security board office at 785 Market street, San Francisco.

WHY CORK IS USED

That which makes cork the best material for bottle stoppers—high frictional properties that cause it to adhere to a smooth surface—also makes it efficient material to use in an automobile clutch, declares L. G. Evans, General Service Manager of the National Automobile Club. Cork has the highest co-efficient of friction of any known substance.

Exports from the customs district of San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego for the first seven months totaled $161,144,573, compared with $157,690,904 for the like period last year. Figures for the Pacific Coast as a whole, however, were slightly under the similar period last year. The chart was prepared by Dean Witter & Co. from figures recently released by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce.

Legion Post Begins Membership Drive

An invitation to all local World War veterans to let the American Legion membership lapel button symbolize their pride in their service to their country, was made today by Geo. E. Stubbles, Commander of Daly City Post No. 410, in a stirring statement launching the post's annual enrollment drive.

The Legion button, Commander Stubbles pointed out, was a public identification of a patriot.

Commander Stubble's statement follows: "Is there any veteran of the World War so poor in spirit and patriotism that he is not proud of the part he played in the greatest of all military struggles since history began?"

"The American Legion offers the best opportunity for you to testify to the world of your loyalty in war and your determination to give continued service in peace. The lapel button of the Legion is a notice to all that you did not fail when your country called, and that you still subscribe to the patriotism and Americanism for which the Legion stands.

"Without the Legion button, the service man has no method of differentiating himself from the thousands who did not go. He may have served, but no one knows it. And the world finds it easy and convenient to forget.

"With the Legion button, you quietly but effectively identify yourself as one of America's veterans, and as an active participant in the work of a patriotic society which is dedicated to the preservation of American principles.

"The Legion's great days are ahead. Its principles, calling for vigorous peace-time service, commend it to all. It is far better to be in the Legion than explain why you are not. The Legion invites you to comradeships. Be one of the active Legionnaires of your community. Join up!"

Ordinance No. 217

AN ORDINANCE CHANGING THE NAME AND DESIGNATION OF "SAN PEDRO AVENUE" TO "SAN PEDRO ROAD."

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF DALY CITY DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. The name of that certain street and thoroughfare shown and designated as "San Pedro Avenue" on that certain map entitled "School House Homestead Ass'n," which said map was filed for record July 10th, 1872 in Book "C" of Maps at page 61 in the office of the County Recorder of San Mateo County, California, hereby is changed to the designation and name "San Pedro Road." Reference is hereby made to said recorded map and the same is hereby incorporated herein with the same full force and effect as if actually set forth herein.

Section 2. The City Clerk is hereby directed to cause this ordinance to be published once in the Daly City Record, a newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in the City of Daly City.

I hereby certify that the foregoing ordinance was and is duly and regularly passed and adopted at a regular meeting of the City Council of

Model Academy Gives Stage Work

One of California's most elaborate studios, the Model Dancing Academy, 1061 Market street, will produce stage presentations to be shown in San Francisco and Hollywood theaters it has been announced by Robert W. Hadley and Edna Myers, owners of the unique school.

Edna Myers, sister of Hal Horne, Hollywood producer and director of publicity for Walt Disney, said to be an excellent judge of theatrical talent and will give her personal supervision to any student showing promise.

Robert W. Hadley is the originator of the famous Hadley System of dance instruction. Hadley has been acclaimed the "King of Ballroom dancers" and is in charge of all instruction in the Model Studios.

A staff of expert instructors including Bill Cole, Patricia Andria, Gladys Hoffschneider, Gil Burke, Jean Cole, Jay Peters, and many more of the cream of dance mentors, teach the simple and complete "Hadley System." Private lessons are also given daily.

the City of Daly City held on the 24th day of October, 1938, by the following vote, to-wit:

AYES: Councilmen Cavagnaro, Sundermann, Twisten, Fahey, Selmi.
NOES: Councilmen, None.
ABSENT: Councilmen, None.

Gains Made In Business

Good news about improvement in business in California and the Far West is announced by Carl E. Newman, local branch manager of Bank of America.

According to the current Business Review, compiled by the bank's analysis and research department, business activity in September advanced for the third consecutive month, and stands at the highest level since January of this year.

Bank of America's index is based on three factors: carloadings, electric power production and bank debits, and each showed improvement in September over August. Carloadings gained 2 per cent; electric power production was up 2.1 per cent; daily average value of bank debits in thirty Twelfth Federal Reserve District cities advanced 8.7 per cent.

Once again, building activity proved to be the backbone of the advance in California.

Permits issued by 32 principal California cities for all types of construction reached a total value of $16,602,970, an increase of 6.9 per cent over August. If a single permit for more than $6,000,000 for a federal building in Los Angeles were deducted from the figures for September last year, the increase this year would have amounted to 48.8 per cent.

Residential building in California increased 57 per cent during September over the same month a year ago according to permits issued in eleven principal cities.

TO OPEN NEW SERIES OF POPULAR CONCERTS

The Federal Music Project of the Works Progress Administration announces a new series of "Everybody's Symphony Concerts" to be given in the Civic Auditorium, San Francisco under the personal sponsorship of the Honorable Angelo J. Rossi, mayor.

There will be four concerts, Tuesday evening, November 1 and 22, December 6 and 13. They will begin at 8 o'clock.

Four outstanding symphonic programs will be presented. Conductors, Leslie Hodge and Walter Herbert, have been announced for two of these events. Well known soloists and other guest conductors are to be announced at a later date.

The personable and brilliant young conductor, Leslie Hodge, will open the series, Tuesday evening, November 1. By popular demand there will be a return engagement of Yasha Davidoff, internationally famous grand opera star as soloist. The program will include: "Air for Strings," Bach; "Second Symphony," Sibelius; "Prince Gremin's Aria from 'Eugene Onegin,'" Tchaikovsky; "Prince Galitzky's Aria from 'Prince Igor,'" Borodin; "The Pines of Rome," Respighi.

San Mateo Jaysee Rooters On Trip

A special train will carry the San Mateo Junior College rooters to Modesto tonight when the Matean football team meets the valley team in a conference game under the arc lights. Dancing and music will entertain the students on the train. Last year the Mateans and the Pirates battled to a scoreless tie.

Junior College students recently adopted a $6000 budget for the fall term activities. Income is derived from the sale of student cards, admission to games, and from the term play.

Fred Klyver, botany instructor, has announced tentative plans for landscaping the new college campus. Landscaping of the grounds around the new science building now being constructed will be the first of the work done.

Ten Jaysee hostel members will make a two day bicycle trip this week end, traveling along the Sky-line.

A fashion show, to include a thousand dollars worth of apparel, will be held by the college coeds at an assembly in the near future.

Junior College hockey players will attend the coed hockey day at Stanford University, November 5.

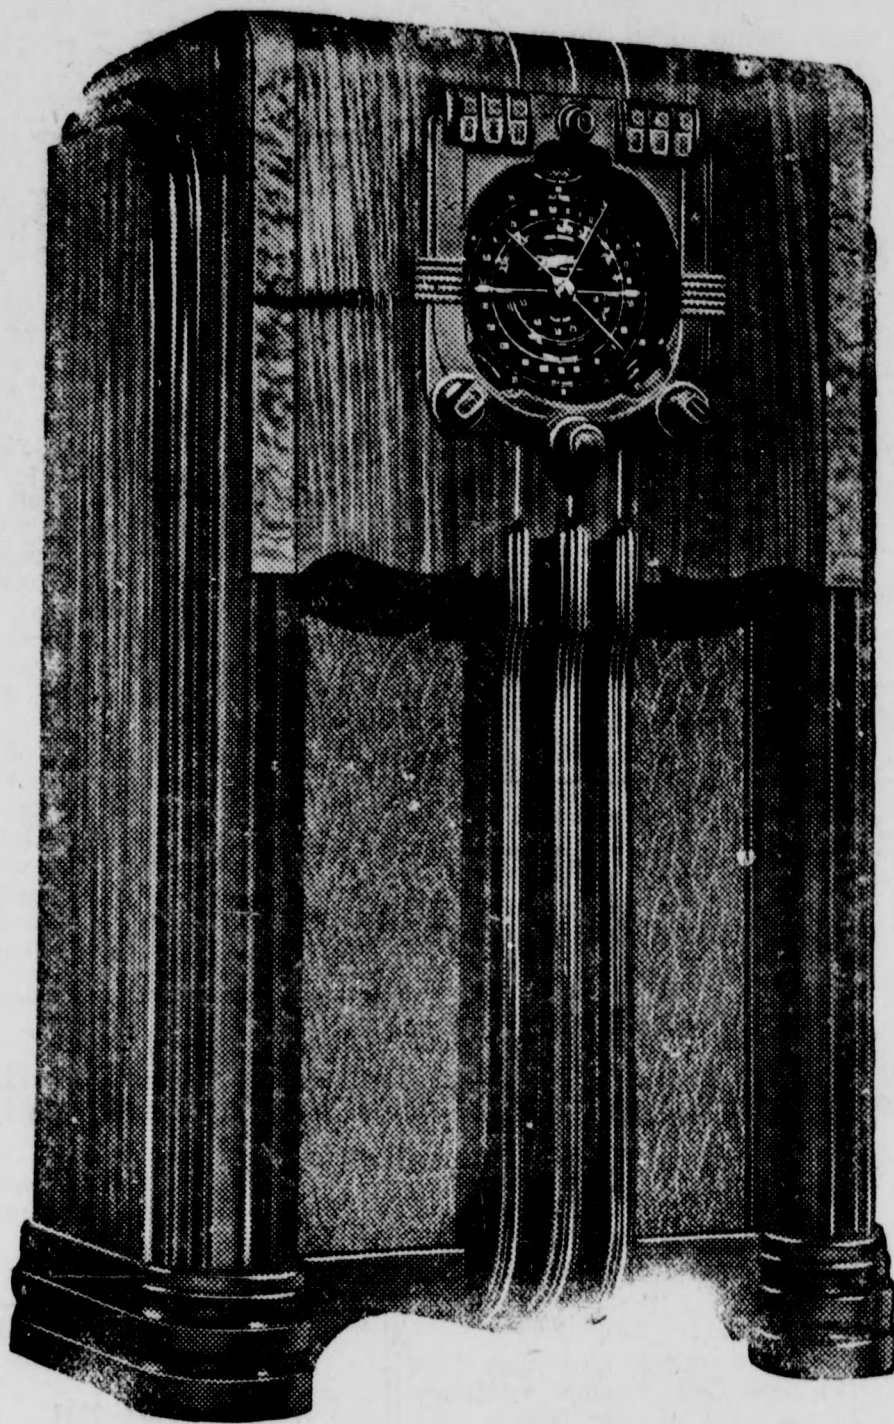

Political matters will be discussed next Monday evening at San Mateo Junior College when speakers will discuss the policies of Merriam and Olson, as well as the relief question in California. The meeting is part of the series of educational talks sponsored by the Peninsula Forum and is open to the public.

The first quarter period at the college has ended and scholarship reports are now being compiled by the instructors.

TAHOE-UKIAH ROUTE

The newly completed four-mile stretch of highway on the Tahoe-Ukiah route just east of Meridian, is now open to the public, according to the Sacramento Office of the National Automobile Club. This new road shortens the distance between Meridian and Marysville by one and a half miles and materially decreases the driving time between those points as numerous sharp turns have been eliminated.

CRUCIAL PERIOD

The automobile death and accident rate has shown a steady decline for a number of months. But now the crucial test period is at hand.

We are entering the most dangerous driving months. Fall brings rains, to be followed by the ice and snows of winter, all of which immeasurably increase driving hazards. Equally important, these seasons bring shorter days—and the accident rate at night, is much higher than in daytime.

The wise driver will prepare for this dangerous period. And preparation should take two forms. Put your car in first-class condition, so far as brakes, lights, tires and steering are concerned. And put yourself in the proper mental condition for safe driving. Never forget that the human element is the responsible factor in the great majority of accidents. Before anyone can drive safely, he must think safely. He must know the hazards he faces, and be prepared for them. This "safety consciousness" is the first and most vital essential of accident prevention.

Remember that chance-taking isn't clever. Any fool can push the throttle to the floorboards, pass on hills and curves disregard adverse weather conditions, and perform similar acts of idiotic recklessness. Caution is the product of intelligence.

Drive safely all the time. And be especially careful in the fall and winter seasons. Then the accident rate will continue to go down.

Crocker Members Attend Dist. Meet

Representatives for Crocker P. T. A. at the district meeting last Friday were President Virginia Davidson, Mrs. Florence Thorsen, and Mrs. Otha Kinsey, district awards chairman.

The next meeting of the Sew and Sew's will be at the home of Mrs. Davidson Thursday of next week. Mrs. Edith Frazier will be hostess. An executive board meeting will be held at that time, and Mrs. Kinsey will conduct her fourth lesson on "Taxation."

The Sew and Sew's had an enjoyable meeting at the home of Mrs. Julia V. Jordan yesterday, at which time several new articles for the bazaar were distributed.

This afternoon Mrs. Davidson is holding a card party at her home. All members and friends are invited. The address is 581 Hanover street and the time is 1:30.

Funeral Services For Colma Man

Funeral services were held from Valente, Marini and Perata and Company, 4840 Mission street, last Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock for John H. (Mike) Lloyd, 43, of Colma who passed away Tuesday of last week the victim of blood poison.

Lloyd, an ice truck driver, cut his hand with a piece of ice which he was delivering to a customer. Blood poison set in and proved fatal.

His wife, Mamie, survives. Other relatives are a brother, Milton Lloyd, and two sisters, Mrs. Harry Goldberg and Mrs. Florence Gleann.

Lloyd was a member of Colma Vista Grande Aerie No. 1848, F. O. E., and Ice Wagon Drivers and Helpers Union No. 519 A. F. of L.

A requiem high mass was celebrated in Holy Angels Church commencing at 10 o'clock. Entombment was at Holy Cross Mausoleum.

RABIES

I should like to call to the attention of all citizens of Daly City the following excerpts from a letter sent me by Charles C. Gans, director of the San Mateo County Department of Public Health and Welfare.

"All persons are urged to use extreme care in handling pet dogs and cats, and to cooperate with health authorities in stamping out this disease."

We urge you to comply with the following suggestions:

1. Report all dog, cat, or animal bites to your Health Officer.

2. Go to your family physician for treatment for all dog or animal bites. (It is recommended that bites be cauterized with fuming nitric acid.)

3. Report all stray animals to your police department, sheriff's office, pound man, or Health Officer.

4. Do not allow stray dogs in play grounds or other places where children congregate in numbers. School authorities especially should instruct children not to play with or attempt to pet dogs or cats. Dogs should not be allowed on school grounds under any circumstances.

5. Do not destroy an animal that has bitten other animals or persons unless it is absolutely necessary to prevent additional damage. If it is necessary to destroy an animal that has bitten another animal or person, do not destroy or injure the head.

6. Vaccination of your pets is

Trinity Officers Entertained Here

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Steinbach entertained the pastors and Sabbath School Teachers of Trinity Center, Twenty-third and Capp street, San Francisco, at their home on Los Banos avenue Tuesday evening.

Mr. Steinbach is superintendent of Trinity Center Sabbath School.

After a business meeting tasty refreshments were served to the following guests: Dr. H. K. Pitman, Reverend and Mrs. Alfred Glass, Mr. and Mrs. A. Best, Mr. and Mrs. E. Snider, Mrs. G. Norstrom, Mrs. E. Thompson, Mrs. V. Lakin, Mrs. M. Barr, Mrs. A. Meeth, Mrs. G. Roescherse, Miss Clara Campbell, Miss Janet Verkuyl, Fred Bentley, Robert Pitman and Warren Steinbach.

recommended. Secure a certification of vaccination from your veterinarian and file it with your local Health Department.

Rabies is an acute, specific, rapidly fatal paralytic infection communicated from a rabid animal, to a susceptible animal, through a wound usually produced by biting. Man always contracts the disease from some lower animal, commonly the dog. The dangers attending even a mild epidemic should not be minimized."

School Encourages Boy Scout Work

Boy Scouts at the Woodrow Wilson School are being encouraged to advance their rank by an attractive chart which Mrs. Corral has on display in the well equipped art and craft shop. As scouts pass various merit badge tests a visual record is kept on this chart.

The scouts are encouraged to prepare for merit badge tests. Three teachers at the school are scout examiners. Mrs. Corral, art supervisor, tests scouts in basketry, art, and leather; Mrs. Hewner, domestic science teacher and librarian, tests in reading and cooking; Miss Tobias, principal, tests civics.

HEARING WEEK

During the past week, National Hearing Week, Miss Franzen, sent from the county office to the Jefferson School District, tested hundreds of students for hearing ability. This is the modern trend which San Mateo County and the Jefferson School District are interested in—the health of their children. Special classes are held for students whose tests prove their hearing defective. This preventive health measure is another means of following the theme of education—fitting children for becoming better citizens even though nature has handicapped them with a faulty auditory system.

from Lower California to San Francisco Bay. He was astonished to learn that the diary was so accurate that he had no difficulty in discovering and identifying at least 75 per cent of the Expedition's camps. Friar Crespi accompanied Portola on each of his two expeditions to the North. On the trail five months, Mora constantly made notes and sketches. During the intervening 35 years he has been a close student of the missions and is today an acknowledged authority on that subject.

The Portola Expedition diorama is being constructed in 14 sections. Although each section will weigh 600 pounds, the sections are amazingly light in weight in proportion to size. The diorama has been designed so that it may be demounted easily and safely and used later by the State of California for educational purposes.

SCULPTURES PORTOLA EXPEDITION FOR EXPOSITION

Announced today by the California State Commission are details of the huge diorama of the Portola Expedition of 1769, to be placed in one of the auditoriums of the State Building on Treasure Island. Designed by Jo Mora, internationally famed artist-sculptor, shown above, the diorama—100 feet in length, probably the largest ever constructed—will depict the hazardous overland march, over an unexplored terrain, of Governor Portola, Friar Crespi and 62 other men, with their pack train of 204 animals. Suffering severe hardships, the expedition eventually reached Monterey Bay and San Francisco Bay, writing one of the first chapters of the inaugural era of the State. Constructed of 14 sections, the diorama will be easily demountable, available for educational purposes after the close of the Fair.

Catholic Daughters Hold Initiation

Last Thursday evening Court St. Mary No. 1155, Catholic Daughters of America, initiated a large class of candidates. This was called a Monsignor Cullen class. Among those present were Reverend Monsignor Cullen, Father Douglas, State Vice Regent Aileen O'Donnell, State Secretary Helen Byrne, State Treasurer Winifred Gaffney, Deputy Margaret Sheehan.

There was a representation from all San Francisco Courts and guests from the East bay.

After addresses from those present congratulating the officers on their splendid manner in conducting the ritualistic work, Father Douglas spoke, and informed the members and their guests that he is to sail to China to do Missionary work.

Grand Regent Evelyn Weckerle added a new idea to the meeting when she called on all the Past Grand Regents and personally pinned a distinguishing badge on each. Those to receive this honor were Helen Rode, Margaret Fields, Elizabeth Wettstein and Katherine McDermott.

After the meeting adjourned, all were invited to refreshments being served by Mrs. Azilda Kohman, chairman, in the banquet hall.

Christine Michelson is to be chairman of the next whist to be held by Court St. Mary, Catholic Daughters, at Masonic Hall on next Thursday evening.

DRUM CORPS WINS

SPCA AND MEDICAL LEADERS CLASH ON BALLOT ISSUE NO 2 "STATE HUMANE POUND ACT"

PRO

The American Humane Association has given its "unqualified" endorsement to California's State Humane Pound Act, which is to appear on the November ballot as Proposition No. 2, Regulation of Pounds, according to announcement this week by Mary Bowcher, chairman of the state central committee sponsoring the Act.

In its letter of endorsement the Association says: "It is the earnest hope of every humanitarian that this bill will be approved by an overwhelming majority. The Association asks that every humane society do its utmost to further this bill and to enlighten the public as to its true intent and purpose."

Miss Bowcher said that the humane societies throughout California have endorsed the Act. The measure, she explained, prohibits the surrender of unclaimed dogs and cats by pounds to research or commercial laboratories, and requires a humane death if no home is found for them.

She pointed out that under Proposition No. 2, scientific research will not be hindered in any way, as there is a provision under which any accredited university or medical research laboratory may use animals bred in its own kennels, or obtained from any source except pounds.

CON

Intensive organization in every county of California to fight passage of the proposed "State Humane Pound Act," which will appear as Proposition No. 2 on the November 8 ballot, has been announced by Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, President of Stanford University and also State Chairman of the California Society for the Promotion of Medical Research.

Dr. Wilbur and other officers of the Society have branded this initiative as "camouflaged antivivisection" which, they state, would cripple medical research in California into the causes and cures of disease. "Kill

No. 2 or it May Kill You" is the slogan adopted for the campaign.

Dr. Thomas Parran, world-famous Surgeon General of the United States Public Health Service, has issued a definite warning against adoption of the proposed "State Humane Pound Act," according to Dr. Wilbur.

"Much of the research of the Public Health Service, for which I am responsible, is directly based upon animal experimentation," says Surgeon General Parran. "This is especially true of much of our new program of cancer research, from which we all hope so much will be achieved."

"I have given considerable attention to the proposal now pending in California. This bill is cleverly drawn and may deceive many but there can be no difference of opinion but that it would impose serious hardships on the medical research workers, on the practitioners of medicine, and on the teachers of medicine."

"I trust that the efforts to defeat it will be successful."

Stanford Economist Condemns Number 13

Condemnation of Proposition 13, the Revenue Bond Act, as "unsound and dangerous," was voiced this week by Professor Edwin A. Cottrell, nationally known economics expert of Stanford University and leading California advocate of public ownership, in a letter received by Senator J. M. Inman, Northern California chairman of the State Association Against the Garrison Bond Act.

"The issuance of revenue bonds is sound, but to require only a majority vote rather than a two-thirds vote is unsound and dangerous," Professor Cottrell wrote regarding the major provision of Number 13, which would abolish the Constitutional two-thirds vote safeguard on issuance of bonds.

"The Act has over 12,000 words, is very ambiguous, uses terms not now found in the state law," Professor Cottrell pointed out, "and would probably lead to a tremendous amount of litigation."

County Clerk Mails Ballots

Each of San Mateo County's 55,384 registered voters this week received all essential information for the November 8 general election, according to County Clerk W. H. Augustus.

In the envelop addressed and mailed to each voter was a sample ballot, a booklet containing arguments pro and con on each of the propositions, and a notice telling each voter where to vote.

"Please save the slip of paper which tells you where to vote," Augustus pleaded.

He pointed out that the office had spent nearly $3800 in sending out nearly nine tons of mail to get the information to the voters. Yet hundreds of persons mislay their voting instructions, appear at the wrong precincts, and cause untold worry and needless trouble on election day, he said.

Each envelop mailed to the voters weighed about 5 ounces, Augustus said, which brought a postage bill of $2076.90 to the county. It cost the county about $1200 to print the sample ballots and another $240 for the precinct notices.

Cost of folding, addressing, and mailing was estimated at $260 by Augustus, for a total preliminary election expense of $3776.

San Mateo Township Club Backs McGrath

Membership of the Five Township Clubs of San Mateo County have endorsed the candidacy of John J. McGrath who seeks re-election to Congress from the Eighth Congressional District of California.

The Township Clubs, which endorsed the candidacy of McGrath in 1934 and again in 1936, have pledged full co-operation to McGrath's campaign for re-election.

HOLD MASS MEETING ON PENSION PLAN

Local proponents of the California State Pension Plan will stage a mass meeting, Wednesday evening, November 2, at 8 o'clock, in Eagles Hall.

Discussion will center about the final, intensive drive to put over the $30-a-year-Thursdays plan of retirement payments.

HALT THIS

Plunge into

SQUANDERMANIA

Proposition No. 13 on your November ballot is a brazen attempt to let down the bars to wholesale public borrowings which would mean . . .

Staggering Debt And New Tax Burdens

This dangerous proposal would abolish the basic safeguard requiring a two-thirds vote for bond issues!

It makes it easier to get into debt but harder to get out!

It would permit the issuance of revenue bonds, IN ANY AMOUNT, by a bare majority of those actually going to the polls. In reality, it would mean that any district, city or county could be plunged into debt by a SMALL MINORITY, as only a fraction of the registered vote usually turns out for a bond election.

You can't afford it. Your neighbors can't afford it. No city or district in California can afford it!

VOTE "NO!" ON No. 13

"Single Tax" Would Increase Home Taxes

If Proposition No. 20, the "Single Tax"—Sales Tax Repeal Act should receive voter approval, taxes on land in California would increase 150 per cent during the first two years, with even more drastic increases in succeeding years, it was stated, this week, by Leslie E. Burks, secretary of the California Association Against "Single Tax."

"The result," Burks declared, "would be wholesale tax-confiscation of homes, farms and business properties, stagnation of business, stoppage of works on public improvements, break down of relief agencies of all kinds, drastic curtailment of educational facilities and payless-paydays for teachers and other public employees."

SMASH the ----- "SINGLE TAX"

If a man steals your purse, at the point of a gun,

IT'S ROBBERY!

But if tax cranks and social revolutionists rob you of your home, your farm, your job and your savings,

IT'S YOUR OWN RESPONSIBILITY

Your DEFENSE is in your own hands—in your intelligent use of the ballot.

The discredited, six-times-defeated "Single Tax" will appear as Proposition No. 20 on your November ballot.

This ruinous proposal would . . .

Confiscate Homes and Farms by piling Extortionate Taxes on Land—Higher than Taxpayers could pay.

It would wreck trades and industries, skyrocket rents, drain the State Treasury of the funds necessary to pay old age pensions, to maintain the public schools and other essential functions of government.

It would bring chaos, distress and disaster to California.

And Remember: You Can't Vote Sales Tax Out, Without Voting "Single Tax" in. The bait of "sales tax repeal" is a deliberate attempt to snare the unwary voter.

VOTE "NO!" ON No. 20!

Here are the FACTS about PROPOSITION #1

Read this statement carefully. It shows
why you should VOTE "YES"

(STATEWIDE ELECTION—NOV. 8)

Note the Fairness and Justice of this Act:

WORKERS CAN ORGANIZE—

(and bargain collectively without interference).

WORKERS CAN STRIKE—

(but no sit-downs, nor seizures of property).

WORKERS ON STRIKE CAN PICKET—

(but with reasonable regulations and only peaceful methods).

WORKERS ON STRIKE CAN BOYCOTT—

(but only their own employer).

BUT NOBODY CAN—

interfere with free use of the highways and wharves by farmers or anyone else.

NOBODY CAN carry on MASS picketing.

NOBODY CAN use coercion or intimidation to force free citizens to join unions, or not join them, or other un-American practices.

NOBODY CAN use the excuse of "hot cargo" for boycotting or picketing because a union official declares a commodity "unfair."

NOBODY CAN boycott those with whom they have no quarrel. In brief—no secondary boycotts.

PROPOSITION #1 IS RIGHT BECAUSE IT IS FAIR

Read this list of some of the representative organizations that have studied Proposition #1 and have approved it officially because it is fair to labor, fair to employers and fair to the people of California:

Philip Bancroft raises your voice against the causes of depression—against Utopian schemes whether for State or Nation—against vicious trade treaties that permit foreign nations to dump $2 worth of their produce here, while buying only $1 worth of ours.

He raises your voice against un-American and subversive radical activities—against National Labor Relations Board favoritism to the C.I.O. and its prejudice against the A. F. of L. and employers.

He raises your voice in favor of prosperity soundly founded—in favor of labor peace and impartial labor administration—in favor of free enterprise in business and agriculture—in favor of non-political relief, as relief and not as a career—in favor of tariff protection for American agriculture, industry and labor—in favor of America!

DO YOU WANT TO PAY MORE RENT?

"Proposition No. 20," now on the ticket for the November election, if adopted, will cause much Higher Rents. This proposition is really for the Single Tax on Land.

Owners of houses now rented will have no choice except to raise rents in order to meet Additional Taxes on Land.

DO YOU WANT TO PAY MORE TAXES?

San Mateo County's average Tax Rate inside the Cities, for the County, the Schools and other Districts is $ 3.85 per $100
If "Proposition No. 20," now on the State Ticket is adopted, the Tax Rate will be $11.84 per $100
Outside the Cities the Present Rate averages $ 2.58 per $100
If "Proposition No. 20" is adopted the Rate will be $ 8.06 per $100

HOW DO YOU LIKE THESE PROSPECTS?

In the entire State "Proposition No. 20" will abolish revenue of about $260,000,000 annually—$100,000,000 from the Sales Tax and $160,000,000 from Taxes on Improvements on Land. Home and Land Owners and Renters will have to make that good, somehow.

WHY you voted to tax everybody else's earnings—and to exempt your own $10,000 a year salary?

WHY you "rubber-stamped" 44½ billions of expenditures—and the taxes to raise those billions from the rest of us—

AND yet you voted (April 11, 1938) to keep exempt from income tax yours and all Congressmen's $10,000 salaries, while making workers pay tax on all income over $1,000?

Italo-American Club Endorses Anderson

Endorsement of Jack Anderson for Congress by the Italo-American Citizens' Club of Santa Clara County was announced this week.

Anderson was given a unanimous endorsement. Full support of the important organization was pledged to his campaign.

Introduced by Michael Scoppettone, secretary of the club, a resolution was adopted, stating:

"This Club feels that it is time a change was made in the Congressional Representation of the Eighth District. We want a man in Congress who will give the same attention to our affairs as he would to his own."

New Democratic support for the candidacy of Jack Anderson, S. N. Benito rancher and business man, has also been reported to Anderson-for-Congress headquarters.

Need of the Eighth District to rid itself of "rubber stamp" representation and get real representation has resulted in a non-partisan movement for Anderson, according to Joseph O'Malley, president of the San Mateo-Burlingame Democratic Anderson Club.

A county-wide rally for Anderson, bringing together campaign supporters from all sections of San Mateo County, took place in the Hotel Benjamin Franklin, San Mateo, Wednesday night.

Civic Groups Oppose Beach Oil Drilling

Forshadowing decisive defeat of Proposition No. 10, the tideland oil drilling act, at the November election, organizations in every section of California have joined in the campaign against the proposal during the past week, it was announced this week by the Shoreline Planning Association.

In San Francisco, the powerful Central Council of Civic Clubs, representing more than 200 clubs in the bay area, condemned Proposition 10 by a vote of 73 "No" to 16 "Yes." Former Senator Edgar Hurley of Oakland, appearing against No. 10, charged that the measure would open the door to oil drilling in the ocean waters and on the beaches throughout the state, destroying one of the state's principal attractions to tourists and visitors.

The San Francisco Commonwealth Club, after several months of study of ballot propositions, also announced action against No. 10, charging that the measure would result in pollution and contamination of many of the finest beaches along the California coastline.

Other groups which have condemned No. 10 during the last few days, include: United Veterans of the Republic, Santa Rosa Chamber of Commerce, Richmond Chamber of Commerce, Parks and Beaches Association of San Diego, San Mateo County Federation of Improvement Clubs and Associations, California State Junior Chamber of Commerce, Redding Chamber of Commerce and the Huntington Beach Chamber of Commerce.

Safety Council Head Hits Initiative No. 4

Answering the claim that Proposition No. 4 on the November ballot would keep highway construction and highway control out of politics, Guy C. Macdonald, chairman of the California Traffic Safety Council and Commissioner of Fire Prevention and Public Safety, this week charged that it would establish "a powerful political machine" with ramifications that "would extend to almost every phase of government."

Challenging the private interests sponsoring the proposition, which would set up a new high-salaried highway commission with ten-year terms of office, Macdonald said:

"The claim that this high-salaried commission, promoted by private interests but financed by taxpayers money, would be non-political is not borne out by the actual facts. The evidence to the contrary is conclusive and, on the basis of sound reasoning, is not debatable."

"The proposition would establish a five-man commission whose salary alone would total $30,000 a year. They would have full power over highway construction and control."

"Furthermore," said Macdonald, "the present coordinated set-up, in which experts of the various departments of the state government, since the formation of the State Traffic Safety Commission, has resulted in a thirteen per cent reduction in fatal accidents on California highways this year and the excellent program of education, road building and enforcement should not be halted by a nebulous proposition which does not contain one grain of assurance of its success, yet could not be changed except by another Constitutional amendment."

Young Democrats Back J. J. McGrath

Membership of San Mateo's Young Democrats Club is now listed in a last-stretch drive for the election of Congressman John J. McGrath. A resolution adopted by the Club and circulated throughout the county says: "Election of a first-time Republican representative, would leave the Eighth District without a voice in Congress. As a new-comer in a minority party he would be wholly without influence to do anything for this District and quite unable to fulfill a single campaign promise."

San Mateo's Young Democrats include an organized group of more than 600 business and professional men and women active and influential in their communities.

Full endorsement of Congressman John J. McGrath was also made by the membership of the Brotherhood of Railroad Maintenance of Way Employees, it was announced this week by General Chairman T. J. Finnernan, San Francisco.

To all persons claiming any interest in, or lien upon, the real property herein described or any part thereof, defendants, greetings:

You are hereby notified to appear and answer the complaint of ALBERT A. MOLFINO, plaintiff, filed with the Clerk of the above-entitled Court and County, within three months after the first publication of this Summons, and to set forth what interest or lien, if any, you have in or upon that certain real property or any part thereof, situated in the County of San Mateo, State of California, particularly described as follows:

Parcel One:

Lots 1 and 2 in Block 38 as designated on the map entitled "MAP OF THE LANDS OF THE ABBEY HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION," which map was filed in the office of the Recorder of the County of San Mateo, State of California on January 2, 1872 in Liber 15 of Deeds at pages 2 and 3 and a copy entered in Liber 1 of Maps at page 14.

Parcel Two:

Lots numbered 3, 4 and 7 in Block 36 as designated on the map entitled "MAP OF THE LANDS OF THE ABBEY HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION," which map was filed in the office of the County Recorder of the County of San Mateo, State of California, on January 2, 1872, in Book 15 of Deeds at pages 2 and 3 and a copy entered in Book 1 of Maps at page 14.

And you are hereby notified that, unless you so appear and answer, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in the complaint, to-wit: That it be adjudged that the plaintiff is the owner of said property in fee simple absolute; that the title to said property be established and quieted; that the Court ascertain and determine all estates, rights, titles, interest and claims in and to said property, and every part thereof, whether the same be legal or equitable, present or future, vested or contingent, and whether the same consists of mortgages or liens of any description; that plaintiff recover his costs herein and have such other and further relief as may be meet in the premises.

WITNESS my hand and the seal of this Court.

(SEAL) Dated September 20, 1938.

W. H. AUGUSTUS, Clerk. By MURA B. STILLESON, Deputy Clerk.

Gay, Surprised Shirley Temple

She is surrounded by a stellar cast in new hit, "Little Miss Broadway."

Six New Songs Stud Score Of Number One Star's Latest Show

"Little Miss Broadway," Shirley Temple's latest starring picture has been completed and is scheduled for its opening Sunday at the Daly City Theatre.

Already, those who have seen the production say that it demonstrates beyond a shadow of a doubt why this young lady is America's Number One star.

BETTER THAN EVER

Of "Little Miss Broadway," the previewers say that Shirley dances and sings with greater ease and talent than she has in any previous film, and her rare dramatic ability continues to amaze her audiences.

The cast which supports Shirley is headed by George Murphy, Hollywood's ace acting-hoof; Jimmy Durante, a droll comic who needs no introduction; Phyllis Brooks, the rapidly rising young blonde beauty who appeared with Shirley in "Rebecca," and Edna Mae Oliver, who is known to myriads of fans as the austere old maid.

Participation of Uncle Sam's Navy in the 1939 California World's Fair on Treasure Island in San Francisco Bay, will be so extensive that a special liaison officer has been named to co-ordinate Navy and Exposition plans.
